"THE SLEEPING CUTIE"

Synopsis

Mr. Van Cleve arrives to see Ted in reference to his fire engine inventions. He tells Ted that he hasn't as yet made up his mind, but he has a proposition to put up to Ted.

That afternoon Ted is to play with the Inglewood Basket Ball Team against a neighboring town. All the young folks, Peggy and Harold arrive at the barn for Ted. Sylvester and Tim decide to take in the game also and Sylvester insists upon dragging his new love along, much to Tim's disgust.

Two men fail to show up and Sylvester and Tim, in a big-hearted way insist upon helping the boys out. Ted tries to stop them, but nothing short of murder could do that. All during the game, Ted is trying his best to teach Sylvester and Tim the rules, at the same time making every effort to win the game for his team. Sylvester, eager to show off before his lady friend, is all over the place, doing nothing but making errors. Ted gets into a regular fight with his pals trying to keep them from losing the game. Every time they cause the team to lose a point, Ted is forced to win it back. The score is tied and then Ted makes a final goal which wins the game.
